From the moment you drive through the suburb of Mysterton, you take a step back in time with the splendour of the charming Queenslanders that this suburb has to offer.

This property is no different – charming, traditional with some stunning additions incorporating a seamless modern extension.

Walking through the front door, you will have your main bedroom on the left, this incorporates a walk through robe and ensuite. To the right are an additional two bedrooms, also having built in robes, fans and air conditioning. The timber floors throughout this home are divine and are in beautiful condition. This home also has two kitchens, the first being in the traditional home, having lovely...
